

Instead of fighting traffic at the Brewery, park downtown, and take the bus up to the Shadow!

THANK YOU TO OUR LOVELY SPONSORS!

OUR GRATITUDE TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

JULY 10TH AT THE CORNER BREWERY
FROM NOON UNTIL MIDNIGHT

How To Enjoy the Many Delights of the New and Expanded

SHADOW ART FAIR

The Shadow Art Fair is casting an even bigger shadow.

In addition to having the usual incredible artists, activities and entertainment all day long at the Corner Brewery, there will be amazing events taking place at the Dreamland Theater (26 N. Washington Street), the Savoy (23 N. Washington Street), and SPUR Studios (800 Lowell Street).

Best of all, they'll all be connected from 6 p.m. to Midnight by two free buses fueled by the oily by-products of fried foods, courtesy of Big Ten Burrito.

THE CORNER BREWERY
The Shadow Art Fair, the earth's least sucky art fair, will run from noon to midnight, with over 40 artists and vendors presenting incredible, inspiring work amid 9,000 gallons of beer. (Ages 18-21 will be able to attend without a parent/guardian noon-3 p.m. Under 18 allowed with a parent/guardian until 9 p.m.)

Kids Activities by FLY Children's Art Center, Noon to 2 p.m.

Shadow Brew Beer Release, 6 p.m.
It goes quickly, so be right on time to taste the always wildly imaginative beer, brewed in honor of the Shadow Art Fair! ($1 from the sale of each beer goes toward funding the Shadow.)

Live Music in the Beer Garden
Ferdy Mayne, 3 p.m.
Genius Blowjob, 3:30 p.m.
Manhole, 4 p.m.
Stef Chura, 4:30 p.m.
HISS, 5 p.m.
Jim Cherwick, 5:30 p.m.
The Blob, 6 p.m.
Annie Palmer, 6:30 p.m.
Meadowlarks, 7 p.m.

Adapt Collective, 7:30 p.m.
Rustbelt Ensemble, 8 p.m.
Ghostlady, 8:30 p.m.

Cinemasports, 10:30 a.m. kickoff, 9 p.m.-midnight screening
The Ann Arbor Film Festival's "Iron Chef of Filmmaking" in which self-assembled filmmaking teams are challenged to include assigned "ingredients" into 3-minute movies produced in 10 hours or less.

The kick-off, during which the "ingredients" will be announced, will take place at 10:30 a.m. outside the Corner Brewery's front entrance. Completed films are due back at the Corner Brewery by 9 p.m. sharp with the screening starting at 9:30 p.m. Formats accepted for final screening are: DVD, mini-DV and quicktime file. It's free to participate—simply sign up at the Cinemasports website (www.aafilmfest.org/cinemasports-shadow). Space is limited to 25 teams, so we encourage you to sign up early to ensure your team a spot. There is a $100 grand prize sponsored by the Shadow Art Fair.

THE SAVOY
Live Music, no cover.
Thom Elliot, 6 p.m.
Strange Brew, 6:45 p.m.
Sam Dour, 7:30 p.m.
Our Brother the Native, 8:15 p.m.

DREAMLAND THEATER
Performance Art
Tom Carey, 6 p.m.
Anna Vitale, 6:30 p.m.
Laura Pazuhowski, 7 p.m.
Holly Hughes, 7:05 p.m.
Amanda Krugliak, 7:30 p.m.

Puppetry
"The Heror Chronicles: The Battle of Romantia; or An Attraction betwixt the sexes which for mighty warrior Heror may have prov'd Faytall were it not for Providence & Swords", Ian Bost, 8 p.m.
Haphazard Theater, 8:30 p.m.

Dreamland Tonight, 10 p.m.- Midnight
"The Adult Episode" with musical guests Paper Mice from Chicago.
A critically acclaimed talk show hosted by a puppet named Mark. It's been called beautiful, silly and smart. This time, though, since the kids are gone, it's just going to be dirty. (Tickets $10 includes live music after the show. Limited number of tickets on sale at noon at the Corner Brewery. 18+ only.)

Live Music, $5
Blood Mambas, 12 a.m.
Suicide By Cop, 12:30 a.m.
Paper Mice, 1 a.m.

SPUR
Kinetic Sculpture Race. A race of giant, inspired, human powered creations on wheels. The Shadow Art Fair will be presenting a $200 grand prize.
Creations on display, 2 p.m.
Time trials to determine placement in final race, 6 p.m.
MAIN EVENT! The Race, plus fun and surprises, 8 p.m.
Track Closed, 10 p.m.

DJ Forest Juziuk of Dark Matter, 6 p.m.-9 p.m.

SEE YOU THERE
AND THERE AND THERE AND THERE